

A Cry Of Compassion

Should not this be the cry of our hearts for our remaining days?

“God, take away all narrowness from my heart. I want Your Spirit of Compassion for those who are hurting...Your Spirit of Forgiveness when I see someone who’s fallen...Your Spirit of Restoration to take away their reproach.

“Take away all exclusiveness from my heart, and enlarge my capacity to love my enemies. When I approach someone who’s in sin, let me not go in judgment. Instead, let the “well of water springing up in me” be a river of divine love for them. And let the love that’s shown to them, kindle in them a desire to truly repent before You, and receive Your forgiveness of sin. Then they can be used by You for Your Glory, as they share Your love and compassion with others.”

2 Corinthians 1:3-4 - <sup>3</sup> Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; <sup>4</sup> Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.
